

Resource Management Act – Fees and Charges

Recent amendments to the Resource Management Act 1991 have created additional activities which require associated charges. These include:

- Boundary activities – Council must exempt ‘boundary activities’ from needing a resource consent if neighbour approval is provided.
- Marginal/temporary breaches – Council may exempt ‘marginal or temporary’ activities from needing resource consent.

The proposed fees are a deposit, with the total cost of processing the application determined following at the end of the process. It is proposed that the existing hourly rates specified in the schedule of fees and charges are used.

- Boundary activities – deposit of $306
- Marginal or temporary activities – deposit of $306.
